"THE COMPETITION AROUND US IN THE PREMIER LEAGUE TABLE IS FIERCE AND WE NEED TO KEEP UP THIS SORT OF MOMENTUM IN THE SECOND HALF OF THE SEASON"

Good evening and welcome back to Wembley.

It was a positive performance that saw us beat AFC Wimbledon here in the FA Cup last week. We controlled the game throughout and had a lot of possession in dangerous areas. Games like that require us to be patient and believe in our ability and philosophy. We knew the chances would come and we were clinical in the second half when they did.

Harry continued his excellent form to open his account for 2018 with two goals and I was pleased for Jan to get on the scoresheet also, I had not seen him score for Spurs before so I was happy to finally see it!

Credit must go to Wimbledon who continued to work hard until the end and we wish them well for the rest of their season. The win takes us through to the fourth round and a trip to Newport County. While there are many places between us and them in the league, we are expecting a difficult trip there and will not be taking anything for granted.

After such a busy period, it was good to spend some time with the players at the Training Centre this week to help them prepare for this match. The players showed great strength physically and mentally to deal with the recent run of games and I am proud of them for that.

We can be happy also with our form over the festive period as we took 10 points from four games in the league and progressed in the cup. The competition around us in the Premier League table is fierce and we need to keep up this sort of momentum in the second half of the season.

Today we welcome Everton to Wembley along with their manager Sam Allardyce. We expect a tough challenge today. They have seen some changes since the reverse fixture and they have enjoyed some good results of late to get them into the top half of the table.

Finally, congratulations are due to Harry who picked up the Premier League Player of the Month Award for December. He deserves all the praise that comes his way, as do his team-mates who create the chances that he takes with such conviction.

Enjoy the game.

BILL RETURNS HOME

The spirit of Bill Nicholson lives on with Spurs while we move into an exciting stage in our development as the world-renowned club that he did so much to establish.

Our legendary former manager and player sadly died on October 23, 2004. His ashes – plus those of his beloved wife Darkie – were buried under the White Hart Lane pitch that meant so much to him and then – with the family's blessing – respectfully transferred into safe keeping on a vantage point overlooking the site as the demolition of the old stadium approached.

Now Bill and Darkie's caskets have been re-interred at a specially-selected location below where the new pitch will overlap the old. This was preceded by a private ceremony attended by the couple's immediate family.

Bill's daughter Jean is delighted that her father has "returned home," and that her parents remain together.

"My sister Linda and I are so grateful for the respect and affection that everyone at the club continues to show towards our father", said Jean. "There is no more fitting memorial than for him to rest below the new pitch, and having Mum by his side makes it even more special.

"Dad's dream was always for his beloved Spurs to be the best in the world and it is clear that this new stadium project is a giant step towards that aspiration. We are proud that Dad played a major role in developing the club's history and that his contribution is being remembered in this way.

"We're sure Dad would have enjoyed watching the current team play, in the way that he always advocated. The fact that the Spurs are taking him with them into the future means so much to us all."

GK joins the Clarets

Georges-Kevin Nkoudou has joined Burnley on loan for the remainder of the 2017-18 season.

The 22-year-old French winger joined us from Marseille in the summer of 2016 and has made 23 appearances to date, scoring once against APOEL in the UEFA Champions League last month.

NEWPORT NEXT IN FA CUP

We have been drawn away to Newport County in the fourth round of the Emirates FA Cup, only the third time the two clubs have ever met in the competition.

Both previous occasions came in consecutive seasons, in 1958-59 and 1959-60. We won both matches, enjoying a 4-1 success at White Hart Lane in January, 1959, thanks to a brace apiece from Bobby Smith and Dave Dunmore, before a 4-0 win at Newport the following January – Les Allen (2), Danny Blanchflower and Smith on target.

We made it through to this season's fourth round after beating AFC Wimbledon 3-0 at Wembley last Sunday, while League Two Newport stunned Leeds United 2-1 at home.

Our tie will take place at Rodney Parade on Saturday, January 27, kicking off at 5.30pm and will be shown live on BT Sport.

Here is the fourth round draw in full:

CUP DELIGHT FOR KYLE AND JUAN

They're young players from different parts of the world, yet Kyle Walker-Peters and Juan Foyth both felt privileged to turn out in the age-old FA Cup last weekend.

Local lad and Spurs fan Kyle lined up at left-back while Juan, who joined us from Argentine club Estudiantes in the summer, partnered goalscorer Jan Vertonghen at centre-half as we saw off AFC Wimbledon 3-0 in our third-round clash here at Wembley.

It represented both youngsters' first taste of action in the famous competition – and that wasn't lost on them.

"I'm delighted to play, especially in a big tournament like the FA Cup," said Kyle. "I'm obviously extremely happy to get the win as well. It's an historic tournament so I feel privileged and honoured to play in it.

"Watching the FA Cup as a kid and going to grounds to see Tottenham play in it a couple of times was very good and it's really great now to be playing in it.

"These cup ties are an opportunity for us as young players to showcase our abilities and try to take our chances."

Juan echoed those sentiments. "Everyone knows about the FA Cup in Argentina," he said. "Obviously Ossie Ardiles and Ricky Villa were successful in the competition many years ago but even with my generation – I knew about the FA Cup when I was in Argentina.

"It's a good tournament and it's a big chance for us this season because we want to win every game and go to the next round."

Christian's a great Dane again!

Christian Eriksen picked out our victory over Champions League holders Real Madrid as one of his standout moments of 2017 after once again being named Danish Football Player of the Year.

The midfielder was given Danish's football's most prestigious honour – the equivalent of the PFA prize in England – for a fourth time in five years last Sunday night, putting him level with all-time great Brian Laudrup for the highest amount of times one individual has claimed the award.

"I feel very pleased and humbled to have received this prize again," said Christian, who became the first player in history to win the award three years in a row between 2013 and 2015.

"It's been a very good year with some nice moments and the fact that this award is voted for by other players makes it mean something extra, so it's a very nice feeling."

Asked to pick out his favourite moments from the last calendar year, Christian continued: "There have been loads! Everything from playing and winning against Real Madrid in the Champions League – which is a big one – to scoring a hat-trick for my national team against Ireland and getting to the World Cup, which was another proud moment.

"The news that I'm going to be starting a family was a very big moment away from football, but there were a lot of nice games throughout the year. There are too many top moments to really pick out one."

Ex-Bayern Munich, Fiorentina and Rangers star Laudrup won his four awards over an eight-year period between 1989 and 1997, but with time on Christian's side, he looks well placed to set a new outright record in future. So how does the 25-year-old feel about being mentioned in the same sentence as Laudrup, who was part of Denmark's Euro 92-winning squad.

"Everybody in Denmark looked up to him when he was playing," said Christian. "Everyone knows about him and he's done some incredible things, so having won the trophy as many times as him is a big thing."

Mark Falco...on target against Everton in our ScreenSport Super Cup semi-final

STAR OF THE SMALL SCREEN!

Andy Greeves tells a story from our vast history that has a link to our matchday opponents. This afternoon, he looks back on our ScreenSport Super Cup campaign of 1985-86, that included a two-legged semi-final against Everton.

Following the Heysel Stadium disaster - which occurred prior to Liverpool's European Cup Final with Juventus on May 29, 1985 - English clubs were banned indefinitely from competing in UEFA competitions.

The exclusion was eventually lifted after five seasons, while the Reds were banned for an additional year. The number of UEFA Cup places granted to English clubs was also reduced initially, before finally returning to a full quota in 1995-96.

The ban twice denied today's opponents Everton the opportunity to compete in the European Cup as champions of England in 1985 and 1987. They also missed out on campaigns in the European Cup Winners' Cup in 1986-87 and the UEFA Cup in 1988-89.

Our third-place finishes in the old Division One in 1984-85 and 1986-87 would have secured UEFA Cup qualification but for the ban, while we would have also entered in 1988-89 having come sixth the previous season. By 1989-90 though, our third placed finish in the division was no longer good enough for a European spot with the diminished UEFA Cup places available.

Aston Villa were England's sole representatives in the UEFA Cup in 1990-91, while Manchester United played in - and won - the European Cup Winners' Cup that campaign. England had no representative in the European Cup that season, as Liverpool were reigning league champions. League Cup winners Nottingham Forest also missed out on entry to the UEFA Cup in 1990 because of England having just one place available in the competition.

In the years without European action for English clubs, a number of tournaments were set-up which attempted to fill this void. The Full Members' Cup ran from 1985 to 1992, featuring clubs from the Football League's top two divisions. Everton were runners-up in the competition in 1989 and 1991, going down to Nottingham Forest and Crystal Palace in respective Wembley finals. A number of eligible clubs chose not to compete in the tournament in particular years, while ourselves, Arsenal, Liverpool and Manchester United never entered at all.

There was also the Football League Super Cup – known as the ScreenSport Super Cup for sponsorship reasons – which was staged during the 1985-86 season. The tournament featured the six clubs that would have been playing in European competitions that campaign but for the ban. They included the Toffees – who should have been in the European Cup – and FA Cup holders Manchester United, who would have entered the Cup Winners' Cup. The line-up was completed by League Cup winners Norwich City as well as ourselves, Liverpool and Southampton – all of who would have qualified for the UEFA Cup.

The clubs were divided into two groups, with Everton, Manchester United and Norwich in Group 1 while we were paired with Liverpool and Southampton. Liverpool kicked-off the tournament - screened live on the now-defunct pan-European cable channel Screensport – with a 2-1 home victory over Southampton on September 17, 1985. A day later, Everton beat Manchester United 4-2 at Old Trafford.

A brace from Mark Falco gave us a winning start in the competition, with a 2-1 triumph over Southampton at the Lane in October. The game marked the welcome return of Clive Allen to first-team action, who hadn't featured since a 2-1 victory over Arsenal on New Years' Day 1985 due to injury. He enjoyed a good run in the team thereafter, scoring 13 goals in 30 appearances in all competitions, while he played in all six of our ScreenSport Super Cup matches.

"It was a real bonus that Peter Shreeves gave me an extended run in the first team because I probably needed a few more games under my belt at that stage," commented Clive. "I was having a spell in the reserves when I was knocking in a few goals… but until you do it in the first team you can never really be satisfied."

Action from our Anglo Italian Cup Final against Torino at the Lane

One of Allen's first goals for us after his return came in our 3-1 ScreenSport Super Cup victory at Southampton with Falco and David Leworthy also on target. A 2-0 defeat at Anfield at the start of that month and a 3-0 loss to the Reds at White Hart Lane completed our group stage fixtures in the tournament, as we secured our place in the semi-final with a second-placed finish.

We took on Group 1 winners Everton in the last four of the competition, while Liverpool faced Norwich. A goalless draw in N17 was followed by a 3-1 Toffees' victory at Goodison Park a month later. Adrian Heath, Derek Mountfield and Graeme Sharp scored for Everton while Falco got our consolation. An all-Merseyside final was confirmed with Liverpool's 4-2 aggregate success over the Canaries.

Everton proved to be a real bogey side for us during the 1985-86 season, with 1-0 home and away victories in our league meetings in addition to their success in this competition. They also knocked us out of the FA Cup at the fifth-round stage, winning 2-1 after extra-time at White Hart Lane on March 4, 1986.

Everton finished second to rivals Liverpool in the First Division table that season, while they were also runners-up to the Reds in the ScreenSport Super Cup. Kenny Dalglish's men beat the Toffees 7-2 on aggregate in the two-legged final. After a 4-1 win at Goodison in the second leg, Reds skipper Alan Hansen lifted the trophy which - legend has it - was then given away to a ball boy by Ian Rush! Liverpool's victory marked the end of the short-lived competition after its inaugural season.

A similar tournament, called the Football League Centenary Trophy, was staged during the 1988-89 season. The eight top finishers in the First Division table from the previous season took part, with Everton beaten 1-0 by Manchester United in the quarter finals.

Arsenal lifted the trophy, defeating the Red Devils 2-1 in the final at Villa Park in October, 1988.

THE ITALIAN JOB

On the subject of less well-remembered tournaments, our Anglo-Italian League Cup triumph of 1972 most definitely deserves a mention.

When Swindon Town won the League Cup in 1969, they were prevented from competing in the Inter-Cities Fairs Cup as organisers UEFA did not permit third-tier clubs to their tournaments at that time. As a way of compensating the Robins for the ruling, the Anglo-Italian League Cup was established, with the Wiltshire side beating Coppa Italia champions AS Roma 5-2 on aggregate in the inaugural tie.

The competition continued with Bologna beating Manchester City in the 1970 edition while we got our hands on the trophy a year later. A Martin Chivers strike put us a goal up after the first leg against Torino at the Stadio Communale in Turin on September 1, 1971. The England forward was on target again three weeks later, while Alan Gilzean also netted as we completed our 3-0 aggregate success at White Hart Lane.

The tournament took a break between 1972 and 1974 prior to Fiorentina winning the 1975 edition against FA Cup holders West Ham United. The final tournament in 1976 again featured an FA Cup winning side in Southampton, who lost 4-1 on aggregate to Coppa Italia holders Napoli.

Ben Davies insists that patience and belief will once again be the key buzzwords this afternoon if we are to pick up all three points against Everton here at Wembley.

We make a return to Premier League action 10 days after our 1-1 draw against West Ham United at this venue, a night when both qualities were very much in evidence as we fell behind against the Hammers but kept playing our football with the belief that we would be able to get a result.

That patience paid off when Heung-Min Son smashed home from 25-yards to earn a point in the London derby and Ben feels the visit of Sam Allardyce's side this afternoon will require that same mentality.

Everton endured a terrible start to the 2017-18 season, winning just two of their opening 10 matches in the Premier League, exiting the League Cup at the hands of Chelsea and failing to make it out of their group in the Europa League.

Manager Ronald Koeman left Goodison Park, to be replaced by Allardyce who immediately sparked a revival in the blue half of Merseyside, helping them climb up to ninth in the Premier League and giving the side renewed confidence.

However, they arrive in north-west London with just one away win in the league to their name – against Newcastle United on December 13 – and having scored only eight goals on the road. But, with their manager having the experience and knowhow to get a result from tricky away matches, this afternoon could be another contest where we'll need to bide our time for the chances to come. Ben certainly thinks so.

"We haven't had a league game for over a week now and it feels quite strange after that busy spell, but it's one we're looking forward to," said the Welsh international. "Everton have picked up their form since the start of the season and we know it's going to a tough one this afternoon.

"Sam Allardyce is a proven manager and has shown what he can do at every club he's been at this level. He can make a side very difficult to beat and he's done that already with Everton.

"It's a results-based game of course and if they come here, keep it tight and make it difficult for us, then we have to adapt to that, we have to be patient and be ready so that when the chances arrive, we make sure we take them.

"But let's not forget that Everton can play football too," continued Ben, who featured in our 3-0 win at Goodison Park in September and delivered the cross for Harry Kane to score our third goal in that game. "They have a lot of quality players in their squad and I'm sure they'll want to get the ball down, move it forwards quickly when they can and try to put us on the backfoot.

"Of course, they will be solid at the back too so we're expecting a tough game, we know what we'll be up against and we know it will be very different to the away fixture at the start of the season.

"It's very much about having that belief in our football, whatever is happening in the game itself. A lot of teams have come to Wembley this season and sat back against us, made us wait for the breakthrough.

"We've had to be patient and sometimes it hasn't come or we haven't got the result we wanted. But games like this are a test for us and we're ready for it this afternoon."

With a new year now ahead of us, Ben is hopeful of another positive 12 months. With the injury picked up by Danny Rose last January, Ben found himself as a regular in the side and has earned plenty of praise for his performances as we pushed Chelsea all the way last term and produced some great displays so far this season, particularly in the Champions League.

"I thought 2017 was a good year and hopefully 2018 can be just as good, if not better," added the 24-year-old former Swansea City defender, who is closing in on the 200th appearance of his club career, having played 196 times before today. "It's been nice to have a run of games in the side and when you do, you feel confident and content with the way things are going. Obviously, the more I play the happier I am.

"For me, it's about keeping your head down and doing your job. Even though I've played quite a few matches, there is always a lot to learn and I take every game and every training session as a lesson.

"There is still a lot to play for this season. We've had plenty of games already but there's a long way to go and we have to be ready for the physical demands so we can put ourselves in a good spot come the end of the season to potentially pick up a trophy and push for a top four place."

CAREER SO FAR

FIRST STEPS

Born in Neath, Ben started out with his local professional side Swansea City, learning his trade in their youth teams up until the age of nine.

DANISH ADVENTURE

His family moved to the Danish city of Viborg in 2002 and, after a successful trial, Ben joined the youth ranks of local team Viborg FF, enjoying two years there.

TURNING PRO

Returned to south Wales and rejoined the Swans, becoming a full-time scholar in their Academy in 2009, turning professional in 2011. Made his debut in August, 2012, in a 3-0 win against West Ham United.

"IT'S BEEN NICE TO HAVE A RUN OF GAMES IN THE SIDE AND WHEN YOU DO, YOU FEEL CONFIDENT AND CONTENT WITH THE WAY THINGS ARE GOING"

While we are currently focussed on league matches against Everton today and Southampton away next weekend, Ben couldn't help but raise a smile when the subject of the FA Cup was discussed. Having successfully despatched of AFC Wimbledon here last weekend, we were paired with Welsh side Newport County in Monday's draw, which could mean a return home for Neath-born Ben.

"I kind of half expected that draw when it came out," he laughed. "It will be a nice trip back and a good experience for the lads. Newport have had a tough time over the last few years, they dropped out of the league and then did well to win promotion back into it.

"If I'm involved, it will be the first time I've played at Newport's Rodney Parade ground, in fact I've never played against Newport before so will be a nice experience.

"It's great for them as a club to get a big draw like Spurs, I'm sure they'll get a full house and they'll give us a good game too."

WEMBLEY GLORY

After establishing himself as a regular at Swansea, he helped them win the Capital One Cup, starting the final against Bradford City here at Wembley as they won 5-0 – the first medal of his career.

SIGNING FOR SPURS

After 85 appearances for Swansea, he moved to Spurs in July, 2014, and has become an integral part of Mauricio Pochettino's squad. Capped 36 times by Wales, including appearances at Euro 2016.

FIFA WORLD CUP RUSSIA 2018

ROAD TO RUSSIA

While there's still a lot to focus on at club level, the turn of the year means the countdown to this summer's World Cup in Russia is on! Ahead of the showpiece tournament, BILLY SHAW chats to members of our current squad who have helped their respective nations qualify over the last two years to find out about their memories of past World Cups and their predictions for 2018. The series continues today with South Korean international forward HEUNG-MIN SON…

What was the first World Cup you can remember watching?
The World Cup in 2002 in South Korea, when we hosted it with Japan. South Korea did very well, getting to the semi-finals and I was so inspired by what I was watching. Just having the World Cup in your country of course makes for a great atmosphere but then when we did very well, the country went crazy! I was very proud of what South Korea achieved and I think everyone was. For South Korean people, this is a memory we will never forget.

Who were the stars that year?
So many good players! I just enjoyed every game, watching all the big players. For me, the stars were Ji-Sung Park and Young-Pyo Lee, the ex-Tottenham player – two guys who were young at the time. I grew up watching those guys and it has always been my dream to follow their footsteps and have a successful run in the World Cup.

Ji-Sung Park takes on Germany in the 2002 semi-final

Son shields the ball from Jan Vertonghen in 2014

Have you ever been to a World Cup match as a supporter?
No. I was too young when it was held in South Korea, only nine years old, so I just enjoyed it on TV.

If there was one World Cup game in history that you could have gone to, which one would it be and why?
South Korea's semi-final against Germany in 2002. We were the first team from Asia ever to reach the semi-finals of a World Cup and it was a close game. Germany won 1-0.

What are the best memories you have of your own country at the World Cup?
When I played at the World Cup in Brazil in 2014. This

Zidane's World Cup final penalty will live long in the memory was my best memory so far and I still can't believe that it happened. We didn't do very well in the end – we came last in the group – but it was a good experience for me. I remember playing against Jan (Vertonghen) and Mousa (Dembele) for Belgium. I scored against Algeria as well, which was a special moment.

What is the best match you've ever seen at the finals?
When Italy played France in the final in 2006. It was 1-1 and Italy won on penalties but I was glad to see the game last so long with extra time because it was entertaining!

And the best goal?
Zinedine Zidane's 'Panenka' penalty for France against Italy in the 2006 final.

What is the most unusual kit you've seen at the tournament?
That's difficult. It's maybe not unusual, but obviously I like South Korea's kit!

Who do you think will make an impact at this year's World Cup?
I wish that South Korea will make a big impact of course, but I think the England team is very strong and also Belgium and France. The French squad is impressive but anyone can win the World Cup, so you never know. I hope the Tottenham boys that are doing well for us at the moment will make an impact too.

What's being said

Sungmo Lee, South Korean football journalist, Goal.com Korea and Daum columnist

"Son is definitely the number one most important player for South Korea's national team at the moment. Ahead of the World Cup, there are many talks and discussions among Korean fans and media about who should go to Russia and who shouldn't, but if there's one player who is never even questioned, it is Son. Although he was a young player in 2014 and Korea failed to qualify for the last 16, he still had a good performance in Brazil. He was voted Man of the Match for the first game against Russia and scored against Algeria in the group stage. I'm sure that Son will be able to carry his good form over to the World Cup this summer, if he can avoid any serious injuries. If you look back at his season so far, you would agree that he has developed even more than last season when he scored 21 goals. The goal against West Ham in the last Premier League game shows that his shooting ability and confidence is at its prime."

REMEMBER WHEN...

…we last played Everton at home in January? It was just six years ago, in a match that was originally scheduled as our first game of the 2011-12 campaign but had to be postponed due to the Tottenham riots. By the time the fixture came around, we were third in the table and very much in the mix, just behind the two Manchester clubs at the top. Our cause was boosted against David Moyes' Everton side, as Aaron Lennon (pictured celebrating) – now with the Toffees of course – gave us a 35th minute lead before Benoit Assou-Ekotto doubled our advantage with a 35-yard screamer past Tim Howard. Harry Redknapp led us to another fourth-place finish that season, but we were denied a Champions League berth for the following campaign after Chelsea won the competition and took England's final place.

ON THIS DAY JANUARY 13

1973
MARGATE 0-6 SPURS

Having already booked our place here at Wembley for the 1973 League Cup Final, we travelled to non-league Margate in the third round of the FA Cup on this day that year looking to make it a cup double. We avoided a potential upset with a comfortable 6-0 win thanks to goals from Martin Chivers (2), John Pratt, Martin Peters, Jimmy Pearce and Cyril Knowles, but lost in a replay to Derby County in round four.

1996
SPURS 1-0 MANCHESTER CITY

It was a very different Manchester City that arrived at White Hart Lane on this day in 1996, compared to the current league leaders! Struggling towards the bottom of the Premiership table that season, City's misery was compounded when Chris Armstrong scored the only goal of the game in the 65th minute. They ended up being relegated, while we finished eighth.

2001
EVERTON 0-0 SPURS

We shared the spoils against today's opposition on this day 17 years ago, the two sides playing out a goalless draw at Goodison Park. It was the start of a difficult spell for us as we then played out three further 0-0 draws in the league, finally finding the back of the net again in the 89th minute in a 1-0 win at Manchester City!

MANAGER:

SAM ALLARDYCE

Appointed as Everton manager in November, Allardyce has taken charge of over 1,000 matches at club level with Limerick, Preston North End, Blackpool, Notts County, Bolton Wanderers, Newcastle United, Blackburn Rovers, West Ham United, Sunderland, Crystal Palace and Everton. He also had a short spell as England manager in 2016, but didn't oversee a game at Wembley, and came out of retirement to take charge at Goodison Park where he has inspired a resurgence.

FORM GUIDE:

Tipped as top-four contenders after a busy summer in the transfer market, Everton's poor start to their Premier League campaign and departure from the Europa League after losing four and drawing one of their first five group matches saw Ronald Koeman replaced as manager by Sam Allardyce. The Blues responded by going unbeaten in seven games and arrive at Wembley today ninth in the Premier League, but an FA Cup 3rd round defeat at Liverpool last week will have stung.

JOEL ROBLES

POSITION: GOALKEEPER
DATE OF BIRTH: 17.06.90
Wembley holds fond memories for Spanish goalkeeper Robles as it was here where, during a 13-game loan spell with Wigan Athletic in 2013, he was an FA Cup winner after keeping a clean sheet in the final against Man City. Latics boss Roberto Martinez was appointed as Everton manager that summer and signed Robles from Atletico Madrid, although he is now second choice to Pickford.

JORDAN PICKFORD

POSITION: GOALKEEPER
DATE OF BIRTH: 07.03.94
Pickford became the most expensive British goalkeeper of all time when he completed a move to Everton from Sunderland last summer with the £25m transfer fee making him the third most expensive keeper ever after Man City's Ederson and Juventus legend Ginaluigi Buffon. The 23-year-old made his England debut here at Wembley against Germany in last November.

THE TACKLER

Midfielder Idrissa Gueye is the most consistent ball-winner in Sam Allardyce's squad this term, averaging 3.7 tackles per game in the league this season.

POSITION: WINGER
DATE OF BIRTH: 24.05.89
Bolasie returned to action on Boxing Day having missed over 12 months of football after suffering a cruciate knee ligament injury in December, 2016, that brought a premature end to his first season with the Toffeemen following a £25m move from Crystal Palace. The DR Congo international winger had spent four years at Selhurst Park after previously playing for Plymouth Argyle and Bristol City.

12 AARON LENNON

POSITION: WINGER
DATE OF BIRTH: 18.04.87
Once the Premier League's youngest ever player, Lennon is enjoying something of a renaissance as new boss Allardyce seeks to utilise the winger's experience, after a frustrating 2016-17 campaign. The former Spurs favourite, who has 21 England caps to his name, joined the Toffees in 2015 after impressing in a loan spell.

JAMES McCARTHY

POSITION: MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 12.11.90
Fitness issues have restricted McCarthy in recent years, with the former Wigan Athletic midfielder playing just 13 times in 2016-17 while he has only appeared for 74 minutes in the Premier League so far this season. A former PFA Scotland Young Player of the Year, McCarthy began his career at Hamilton Academical and has been capped 41 times by the Republic of Ireland.

GYLFI SIGURDSSON

POSITION: MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 08.09.89
After impressing for Swansea City while on loan from Hoffenheim in 2011-12, Icelandic international Sigurdsson signed for Spurs and went on to score 13 goals in 83 games before moving back to South Wales in 2014 as part of the deal which saw Ben Davies become a Tottenham player. Everton paid £45m to sign Sigurdsson in August, a club record transfer fee for the Toffeemen.

DOUBLE EDGE

Richard Gough took an unusual route to White Hart Lane. Yet, from the minute he arrived, he looked the purist's ideal of what a Spurs centre-half should be.

Calm in possession, rugged in his defending and with all the style and grace on the ball that Tottenham fans demand, Gough was born in Stockholm, brought up in South Africa and a Scottish international.

His father Charlie had played for Charlton Athletic where Richard later spent some time. But it was with Dundee United that he found his feet and established his reputation as a versatile, resolute defender.

Within two years of his debut, he stepped up for his first full Scotland cap and played his part as United won the league title in 1983 and appeared in both domestic cup finals.

He was a Scotland regular when we managed to beat Rangers to his signature in August, 1986, a year that also saw him crowned Scottish PFA 'Player of the Year.'

New manager David Pleat immediately made him captain and Gough showed great consistency in his first season as he led the side to the FA Cup Final.

But by October, 1987, he was gone after just 65 games in a Spurs shirt. Rangers finally got their man. And although we made a profit of almost £1 million in just over a year, his cool impact on the side had been instant and influential.

At Ibrox he linked up with our old mate Graham Roberts during a time of great and enduring success for the Glasgow club.

He later played briefly for Nottingham Forest ahead of two years with Everton.

Triple Measure

Taffy O'Callaghan scored four goals when we beat Everton 5-2 at Goodison Park in February, 1928. Jimmy Dimmock was also on target. Yet we were relegated at the end of a season that saw the Toffees crowned champions of Division One! And they had already beaten us 3-1 at White Hart Lane in the October.

MAIN ISSUE

The programme for Everton's visit to the Lane on December 19, 1964, was a 12-page issue, mainly black-and-white with light blue spot colour on the front and on page seven where that afternoon's teams were displayed. It cost three pence.

There were three pages of stats, page two was a captioned photograph of recent debutant Roy Low with an action shot from our previous home game, a 3-0 win over Sheffield Wednesday.

Readers were informed that Everton were suffering a bit of an injury crisis with Ray Wilson, Alex Parker, Andy Rankin, Roy Vernon, Alex Young and Alex Scott all doubtful but we were warned: "Although our visitors have not perhaps been enjoying the success which has marked their efforts over the last two or three campaigns, they are still a most attractive team to watch.

"When at their best they can be relied on to serve up top-class football for their team which includes many talented and clever players."

LOCAL HERO

Alan Gilzean made his Spurs debut at home to Everton in December, 1964. Jimmy Greaves scored twice in the 2-2 draw with his fellow England international Fred Pickering matching that tally.

Gilly, born in Coupar Angus, had already played at White Hart Lane before his transfer south from Dundee in December, 1964. In fact, he impressed so much that it was no surprise when Bill Nicholson quickly moved to sign the Scottish international hit man.

Gilzean scored twice for a Scotland XI against Spurs in the John White memorial match and had already earned a glowing reputation at Dens Park with goals all the way in their title success of 1962 and exploits in the European Cup the following season.

He and Greaves instantly established a rapport with Gilly showing his ability and willingness to play a more supporting role – and he did so again when he linked up with Martin Chivers on his arrival four years later.

A talented and versatile front runner, Alan's heading ability was exceptional, deft and accurate with a touch that could never be coached. When he left us after a decade he had clocked up 133 goals – and made so many more – in 439 senior appearances.

Front Page

Also in the news in 1964 was the abolishment of capital punishment as Labour came back to power. Mods and Rockers ran riot on the south coast and the Windmill Theatre, whose wartime motto was 'We Never Closed', closed. Britain and France agreed to build a Channel Tunnel.

'Steptoe and Son' (pictured) was the top TV show, 'Goldfinger' was on at the cinema and 'I Feel Fine' by The Beatles topped the UK charts.

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMMES TAKING PLACE AT FEBRUARY HALF-TERM

The Global Coaching's Player Development Programmes will be returning to Essex, Hertfordshire and North London this half-term and will run from Monday-Friday, February 12-16.

Our player development syllabus has been created by our Academy staff, focussing on every aspect of the game including goal scoring, defending, possession and domination.

A professional and structured environment is created to allow all players to demonstrate flair and individualism. Young players will have the opportunity to develop technically within similar training sessions that the likes of Harry Kane, Harry Winks and Kyle Walker-Peters have experienced.

Our FA and UEFA-qualified coaches focus each session on a specific element of the game and use inspiration from our current first team and Academy to aid the development of all young players present on the programme.

Each player will be individually monitored by the Global Coaching team to ensure they train with players of similar abilities and ages, with the overall aim to progress every player through the ability levels.

Dilan Markanday tussles with Yasser Larouci

YOUNGSTERS SHINE AS REDS HIT FOR FOUR

Our Under-18s turned on the style to thump unbeaten Liverpool 4-0 and march into the semi-finals of the Under-18 Premier League Cup at Hotspur Way on Wednesday.

It was a rare battle at this level against the Reds, who haven't lost a domestic game this season, are top of the northern section of the league table and also won their group in the UEFA Youth League. But, with the two teams coached by ex-England midfielders Scott Parker and Steven Gerrard, it was our players who put themselves in the limelight with an excellent team performance.

There was a lot at stake in this quarter-final clash in the inaugural competition – and right from the off we were on the front foot and looking to control the play, even though shooting chances were initially rare.

Reo Griffiths and Rhys Williams were off-target at either end but Oliver Skipp was dominating the middle of the park, his precise passing caused Liverpool problems.

After an Adam Lewis set-piece hit the top of the crossbar on its way behind for the visitors, it was a fine Skipp pass that played Griffiths through to clip home from the right side of the area and open the scoring on 43 minutes.

"IT'S A GREAT RESULT. IT WAS A MASSIVE GAME FOR US. LIVERPOOL WERE UNBEATEN IN THE LEAGUE..."

The Reds should have equalised virtually straight away when Lewis found Yasser Larouci unmarked at the back post, but the right-back skewed his effort over the bar with the net beckoning. Jonathan De Bie also dived low to his right to deny Curtis Jones in first half stoppage time.

Crucially, we started the second half well and, despite Rayan Clarke missing his kick in front of goal and Rodel Richards firing just wide from 18 yards, it was soon 2-0 as the latter closed down Vitezslav Jaros and when the keeper tried to clear, the ball ricocheted back into the net off Richards on 54 minutes.

Six minutes later it was three as Richards burst onto Tariq Hinds' pass down the right and, after seeing his initial effort blocked by Williams, he reacted quickest to drill inside the near post with his left foot on the rebound.

Jones fired across goal but hit the far post in the Reds' best chance of the half on 74 minutes but we rounded off a good day's work in the 90th minute when Jneil Bennett released Hinds down the right and his low ball across found Markanday, who took a touch before drilling into the net with his left foot.

"It's a great result," said coach Parker. "It was a massive game for us. Liverpool were unbeaten in the league and we set the boys some tasks in terms of digging in, getting a clean sheet, their mentality and they ticked all the boxes, so I'm really proud of them to be fair – we did really well.

"It was strange (to be coaching against Steven Gerrard) and I said to Stevie beforehand that it was very different for us. I remember when we were kicking each other in midfield and now we're on the sidelines!

"Your life changes but Stevie is obviously a student of the game and he obviously wants to go about things the right way, trying to learn as much as he can, similar to myself."

Spurs: De Bie (c), Hinds, Reynolds, Skipp, Lyons-Foster, Eyoma, Markanday, Patterson (Dinzeyi 88), Griffiths, Richards (Bennett 79), Clarke (P Maghoma 55). Substitutes (not used): Oluwayemi, Bowden

DRAMA IN EIGHT-GOAL THRILLER

Two quickfire goals from Leicester City at the end of each half saw the spoils shared in a dramatic Under-18 Premier League clash at Hotspur Way last Saturday.

We'd raced into a 3-0 lead in a blistering opening 24 minutes with Dilan Markanday and Rodel Richards adding to Lukas Husek's early own goal.

But after goalkeeper Jonathan De Bie saved Kairo Edwards-John's 38th-minute penalty, Morgan Brown followed in to score and swiftly curled home a second from the edge of the box to bring the Foxes right back into the game prior to half-time.

Phoenix Patterson – one of several players whose driving runs caused problems for Leicester's defence – made it 4-2 within 10 minutes of the restart but we lost some attacking impetus in the final quarter-of-an-hour and a quick brace from Conor Tee in the 85th and 87th minutes saw the game end 4-4.

Spurs: De Bie (c), Hinds, Reynolds, Bowden, Dinzeyi (Statham 56), Lyons-Foster, Richards (P Maghoma 79), Patterson, Griffiths (Bennett 73), Markanday, Clarke. Substitutes (not used): Oluwayemi, Lock.

When did you first start training for Spurs? With the Under-11s at Chigwell and Frenford.

Who do you like to watch in training in our first team and why? Toby Alderweireld. He's great on and off the ball. Obviously he's an outstanding defender and his range of passing over a short or long distance is very good. He's composed on the ball and able to play out from the back.

Which overseas league do you follow closest and which players from it do you most appreciate? La Liga and Sergio Ramos at Real Madrid. He's been a full-back and a centre-back, so he's someone to look up to and learn from.

Any other sports men or women in your family? My older brother Kodi. He played for Tottenham's Under-16s, then went to Aston Villa's academy, then Bristol City and is currently at Aldershot Town.

NO NEW YEAR JOY FOR LADIES

Spurs Ladies returned to action for the first time in 2018 last Sunday, but couldn't open the year with a victory in our WSL 2 match against Brighton at Cheshunt FC.

Although we fell behind early, the girls threw everything at our visitors in the second half but couldn't find the goal their play deserved as we suffered a 1-0 defeat in a game played in difficult, windy conditions.

The Seagulls took the lead with 10 minutes on the clock as Sophie Perry powered in her free-kick from just outside the area and Brighton also had a goal disallowed before Sarah Wiltshire and Ronnell Humes just failed to connect with Lucia Leon's cross. The visitors responded as Chloe Morgan saved from Fliss Gibbons, the same player then headed wide from close range and Bronwen Thomas rifled a shot just over.

Hannah Mackenzie in action against Brighton

We came out with added impetus in the second half. Bianca Baptiste struck over, Lucy Gillett clawed away Jenna Schillaci's free-kick and the goalkeeper did well to save from Lauren Pickett, who was released by Sophie Mclean.

Baptiste fizzed in another volley, Gillett collected Wendy Martin's header and Wiltshire's dipper was again taken by Gillett on 90 minutes as we pushed hard for the equaliser. The last action saw Morgan save well from Ini Umotong.

"We had chances but didn't convert them and so ended up with no points," said assistant coach, Juan Amoros.

"We knew what they were going to be like – a strong side, physically good – and we conceded a goal similar to the one they scored last time we played them. After that it was always going to be hard, especially against the wind in the first half.

"But we are a team which is strong psychologically and when things go against us, we are always prepared to fight and try to come back into the game.

"We really pushed for the goal in the second half but just couldn't take our chances in the end."

Spurs: Morgan, Leon, Hector, Schillaci, Neville, Mackenzie (Vio 45), Mclean, O'Leary (Martin 67), Pickett, Humes (Baptiste 58), Wiltshire. Substitutes (not used): Wayne, Haines, Vyse.

It's a tough task though – the famous Belles are currently top of WSL 2, unbeaten after seven games and beat us 4-1 in November. The full draw is as follows:

Sunderland v Derby County or Brighouse Town
Keynsham Town v Lewes

DIGGER'S RETURN

Exclusive interview with former Spurs and Everton midfielder Simon Davies, who reveals he's ready to return to football, despite falling out of love with the game at one stage

BY PAUL MILES

Seventeen years as a professional, almost 500 appearances for club and country along with a series of injuries – and Simon Davies admits he'd had enough.

The attacking midfielder who went from League Two to football's top table in five years at Spurs retired aged 34 in 2013 after six years at Fulham.

"I finished my career with a hip injury at Fulham and I was sick of football at that point, sick of being injured," he recalled when we spoke to him this week. "I thought to myself that I'd take a year or two out, we've got a young family and I was able to spend time with them but it's got to the stage now where I'm itching to get back in to the game."

How pleasing it is to report that Spurs helped him out of that malaise.

"When I first retired, I really struggled to watch games in full," said Simon, known as 'Digger' throughout his career. "I would find myself flicking through. But when Spurs are on, I love the energy they play with, the pace and power and then with Harry Kane coming through the system, he's the big game changer really. To have him progress through the Academy and now scoring all those goals – which is the hardest thing in football – it's been amazing to watch."

Simon joined us in 2000 in a double deal with winger Matthew Etherington, two of the brightest prospects in the Football League at the time at Barry Fry's Peterborough United. Born in Haverfordwest in Wales, Simon had joined Posh via Wrexham and Norwich City and racked up 75 league appearances by the age of 21.

He made his Spurs debut at Anfield in April, 2000, but really got his break almost a year later as an early substitute for Oyvind Leonhardsen in an FA Cup tie against Stockport County at the Lane in February, 2001, coming off the bench to score twice.

In the next two seasons, he played 80 times in all competitions and contributed 12 goals from midfield. There were some huge moments, not least firing home goal number four in our 5-1 win against Chelsea in the League Cup semi-final, second leg in January, 2002.

He earned a regular place in the Wales national team as well and in October, 2002, scored in a famous 2-1 win against Italy at the Millennium Stadium. He went on to earn 58 caps.

However, injuries were starting to creep in and he made only 42 appearances across 2003-04 and 2004-05 before switching to Everton. He spent two years at Goodison – scoring one goal in 53 appearances – before moving back to London and Fulham in 2007. He ended his career after six years at Craven Cottage with the highlight an incredible run to the UEFA Cup Final in 2010. Simon scored in the final but Fulham went down 2-1 against Atletico Madrid.

> “I ALWAYS LOOK BACK AND SOME OF THOSE NIGHTS PLAYING AT WHITE HART LANE WERE UNBELIEVABLE”

“I joined Spurs 18 years ago, it’s crazy,” he said. “It’s funny, when you leave…you have a lot of emotional times at a club and until you go back like I did for the Lane Finale, I’m not saying you forget about those times, but it all comes flooding back. I loved my time at Spurs, I really did.

“In my first two or three years at Spurs I was absolutely flying. I just picked up injuries at the wrong times and that halted my progress. I still loved every minute. I always look back and some of those nights playing at White Hart Lane were unbelievable.”

That brings us to the present day and the Spurs class of 2018. Simon has nothing but good things to say about them.

“Harry, Christian Eriksen, Dele Alli, Heung-Min Son…those are the players I love, they are so clever in the positions they take up. They obviously do amazing things that everyone can see, but they also do the little subtle things that might not get picked up on TV.

“You watch that and think ‘that was class’ because you know how hard they are to do as a player. These little things are so simple but show the true quality of a player.”

So what does the future hold for Simon?

“I’m hoping to do my first coaching badges in August and work my way up from there,” he said. “Obviously there are a lot of people doing that and it’s a tough industry to get into again, but I’ll probably go down that route and hopefully get back into football.

“I had 20 years in the game at different levels, League Two up to the Premier League and when you come out of football and speak to other people in other industries, you quickly realise that football is all we know really, we’re so under-qualified for everything else. It’s a long journey as a coach, full-on commitment and I’m ready for that.”

Not many players from the Channel Islands have made it in the Football League and Len Duquemin was one of the first. He grew up in Guernsey during the Second World War, working in a monastery and playing for the Vauxbelet club.

When the war was over, a long-standing Spurs' supporter on the island recommended Duquemin to us. It was a big step for the 21-year old centre-forward when he arrived at White Hart Lane for a trial in December, 1945, but he quickly proved it was a wise decision. He impressed greatly in his trial games, was signed to amateur forms and made his debut in a Football League South match at Fulham two months later. Within nine months of arriving in London he was on the professional staff.

Duquemin did not get a chance when football returned to normal in 1946-47, manager Joe Hulme preferring the experienced George Foreman and the younger but speedier Charlie Rundle, but after defeat in the opening two games of August, 1947, Duquemin was given his opportunity against Sheffield Wednesday.

He scored in a 5-1 win and netted five more goals in his next four games, few people at the time ever contemplating that over 70 years later, Len would be one of the top 10 goalscorers in the club's history.

Hulme decided to put his faith in Duquemin and it was a decision that was to prove absolutely correct, albeit long after Hulme had departed, as 'the Duke' led the line when we won the Second Division in 1949-50 and immediately followed up with the Football League title.

Duquemin had his limitations – he was not particularly skilful, lacked a bit of pace and sometimes seemed behind the play but the positives more than made up for the negatives.

His greatest assets were his willingness to work hard for the benefit of the team and his determination. He had a real whole-hearted approach to his job, working tirelessly, putting himself in where the knocks were hardest and holding the ball up for his colleagues before finding one of them with a well-placed pass. Duquemin never stood still. He was always on the move, looking for space in which to receive the ball or get through for a crack at goal. Neat and tidy, he believed in playing the game simply and that was what he did, proving that simplicity could be just as effective as anything more flamboyant.

He may not have got the plaudits he deserved but he was the perfect centre-forward for the "Push and Run" team and hit double figures in terms of league goals in each of his first six seasons with us.

Having scored his first goal in our colours against Sheffield Wednesday, he also netted his most important one against the Owls at White Hart Lane on April 28, 1951. After good work by Ron Burgess, Eddie Baily wriggled his way through the visitors' defence. His pass found Les Medley who immediately moved the ball on for Duquemin to stride onto and fire home. It gave us the League Championship for the first time in our history. His century came against Preston on February 21, 1953, the first of a hat-trick that day in a 4-4 draw.

As Arthur Rowe's great team began to break up so Duquemin's place came under threat. Dave Dunmore's arrival in February, 1954, was expected to spell the end of Duquemin's career with us but he typically fought back and then saw off the challenge of Alfie Stokes before eventually losing out to Bobby Smith.

Duquemin remained at the Lane until November, 1958, when he moved on to Bedford Town, leading the scoring charts as they won the Southern League in 1959.

All smiles as Gary lifts the FA Cup after our 1991 success

WEMBLEY MEMORIES

Each matchday, Andy Greeves speaks to a former Spurs player about their memories of Wembley Stadium during their career. This afternoon, Gary Mabbutt looks back on his numerous appearances at the 'Home of Football' for club and country

Having signed from Bristol Rovers in the summer of 1982, Gary Mabbutt had only featured in a pre-season friendly at Scunthorpe United before he was turning out for us at Wembley Stadium.

It was on August 21 that year when he made his second appearance in our colours, in our FA Charity Shield match with Liverpool at the 'Venue of Legends', in front of a crowd of 82,500.

"Growing up, Wembley always held a special place in my family's affections," says Gary, who stands second on our list of all-time appearance makers, having played in 611 competitive matches for us through until 1998, scoring 38 times. "My dad Ray and my brother Kevin were professional footballers and my father especially dreamed of playing here. It seemed very strange for me to be playing at Wembley so early in my Tottenham career, especially as my dad never managed to do that in his 16 years as a professional.

"It was a fantastic experience walking out of the tunnel at Wembley, with all the colour and noise. There were definitely some nerves as I was playing just my second match for Spurs in England that day."

An Ian Rush strike settled the Charity Shield in favour of Liverpool. For Mabbutt, it was the first of 16 appearances – including club and international friendlies – at Wembley Stadium during his distinguished career, that yielded both highs and lows. A few weeks after the Charity Shield, Mabbutt scored on his league debut for us in a 2-2 draw with Luton Town. That was one of 10 strikes for us in his first season as he featured in 38 of our 42 Division One matches.

> BEFORE I WENT UP THE STEPS, I WAS THINKING BACK TO MY CHILDHOOD AND THE YEARS OF WATCHING FA CUP FINALS WITH MY FAMILY

He also made the first of his 16 appearances for England during the campaign against West Germany at Wembley on October 13, 1982.

"An England match at Wembley was very different to a club match," reflects Mabbsy. "Obviously for an international, the vast majority of the crowd are supporting you, whereas it's split 50-50 for a club game. It was a huge occasion to be a part of a game against West Germany, playing a team that had competed in the World Cup Final just months earlier.

"It could have been a goal scoring debut for me. I remember hitting a half-volley from outside of the box that evening, that forced a good save from their goalkeeper Harald Schumacher. Unfortunately, we ended up losing 2-1, with Karl-Heinz Rummenigge scoring twice for the Germans."

Eight of Mabbutt's 16 appearances for England came at Wembley Stadium, where he also scored his one and only international goal in a 2-0 win over Yugoslavia on November 12, 1986.

"My goal came from a Glenn Hoddle corner," remembers Gary, who also netted twice in seven England Under-21 appearances and once in nine 'B' matches. "Glenn always did well in terms of finding me in the box with set pieces. He signalled where the ball was going and I made a run. I managed to get above the defence that evening and head the ball in. To score for your country at Wembley in a European qualifier was something very special."

Gary enjoyed getting his hands on the FA Cup in 1991

On May 16, 1987, Mabbsy was again on the Wembley Stadium scoresheet, putting us 2-1 up five minutes from half-time in our FA Cup Final against Coventry City. Clive

Allen had given us the lead after just two minutes of the match while Dave Bennett equalised for the Sky Blues. In the second period, Keith Houchen's diving header for Coventry levelled the score once again, forcing extra-time. Mabbsy found himself on the scoresheet again in the added period of 30 minutes, alas at the wrong end of the pitch.

"Lloyd McGrath crossed the ball from our left-hand-side," recalls Mabbutt, on his unfortunate own-goal in the 3-2 defeat. "The ball hit the top of my knee and as soon as it happened, I could see it was going to loop over Ray Clemence into the far corner. We did everything we could to try to get back into the game but it wasn't to happen. Full credit to Coventry… it was the biggest result in their history. It was a great game that could have gone either way, but it was just a shame the way it finished."

Four years later, Gary and ourselves were back here at Wembley Stadium to take on Arsenal in the first-ever FA Cup semi-final to be staged at the venue. The Gunners, who were within touching distance of their second league title in three years, went into the clash as over-riding favourites. However, a magnificent free-kick from Paul Gascogine and a Gary Lineker brace gave us a memorable 3-1 victory.

"On the day, we went out and played Arsenal off the park…it was the complete performance and we were stronger than them in every department," smiles Mabbutt. "A lot of our fans still remember that semi-final more than the final. As players though, we felt it would have meant very little to have won the semi-final but then lost the final, so we were determined to get the result against Nottingham Forest."

In Mabbutt's words, "everything that could go wrong, went wrong" in the first-half of our FA Cup Final against Brian Clough's Forest on May 18, 1991.

"Our most influential player of that cup run, Paul Gascoigne went off injured," continues Gary, who skippered us that afternoon. "Stuart Pearce scored from the free-kick that Gazza had given away when he got injured and after that, we had a perfectly good goal disallowed and Gary Lineker had a penalty saved by Mark Crossley.

"In the second half, we carried on playing in the same way we had done in the first and we got our reward for a good performance when Paul Stewart equalised. Then, in extra-time, it was a Des Walker own-goal that won us the cup. It was quite ironic after what happened to me in 1987 and I felt for Des."

The 2-1 win gave club captain Mabbutt the opportunity to lead our players up the 39 steps of the Royal Box at the original Wembley Stadium.

"Before I went up the steps, I was thinking back to my childhood and the years of watching FA Cup Finals with my family and going out to play football with them after the final whistle," beams Gary. "I collected the cup from The Duke and Duchess of Kent, Prince Charles and Princess Diana. That moment when you take the trophy and lift it is incredible. Anyone that has seen the photo of me lifting the cup that day will see the biggest smile I've ever had on my face!"

Mabbsy also skippered us in our goalless draw with Arsenal in the FA Charity Shield at Wembley a few months later and our 1-0 defeat to the Gunners in the FA Cup semi-final here on April 4, 1993.

He also played in our two matches at the Wembley International Tournament in August, 1988, including a clash with Italian champions AC Milan. The Rossoneri included Marco van Basten, Ruud Gullit and Frank Rijkaard in their line up, who had starred in the Netherlands' European Championship triumph that summer.

"I was marking van Basten in that game, who was one of the best strikers I ever came up against during my career," says Gary. "Usually when I played against a forward, I'd look at their strengths and weaknesses, assess the best way to mark and challenge them, find out their better foot etc. With van Basten though, he simply didn't have a weakness. Every element of his game was exemplary and he was one of a number of world class players in that AC Milan side at the time."
